

Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes

Tribal Perspectives
on Energy Development

October 19, 2005

Re-licensed In 1985 Co-licensed to Confederated Salish
and Kootenai Tribes and PPL Montana

Mission Valley Power

Serving the Mission Valley from Evaro to Dayton and Yellow Bay
And
From Hot Springs to the top of the Mission Mountains

MVP Main Office
65 Pablo West Road
PO Box 97
Pablo MT 59855

(406)675-7900 or (406)883-7900

Mission Valley Power

A Federal Utility managed by the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes through a 638-contract with the Bureau of Indian Affairs,
Department of Interior

Tribes Gain Utility Experience - MVP Customer Breakdown -

MVP currently serves 17,404 customers

- Ø 13,421 Residential
- Ø 137 Single Phase General Service
- Ø 313 Three Phase General Service w/o Demand
- Ø 2,496 Three Phase General Service w/ Demand
- Ø 1 Large Commercial Account
- Ø 1,036 Irrigation Accounts

Tribes Gain Experience

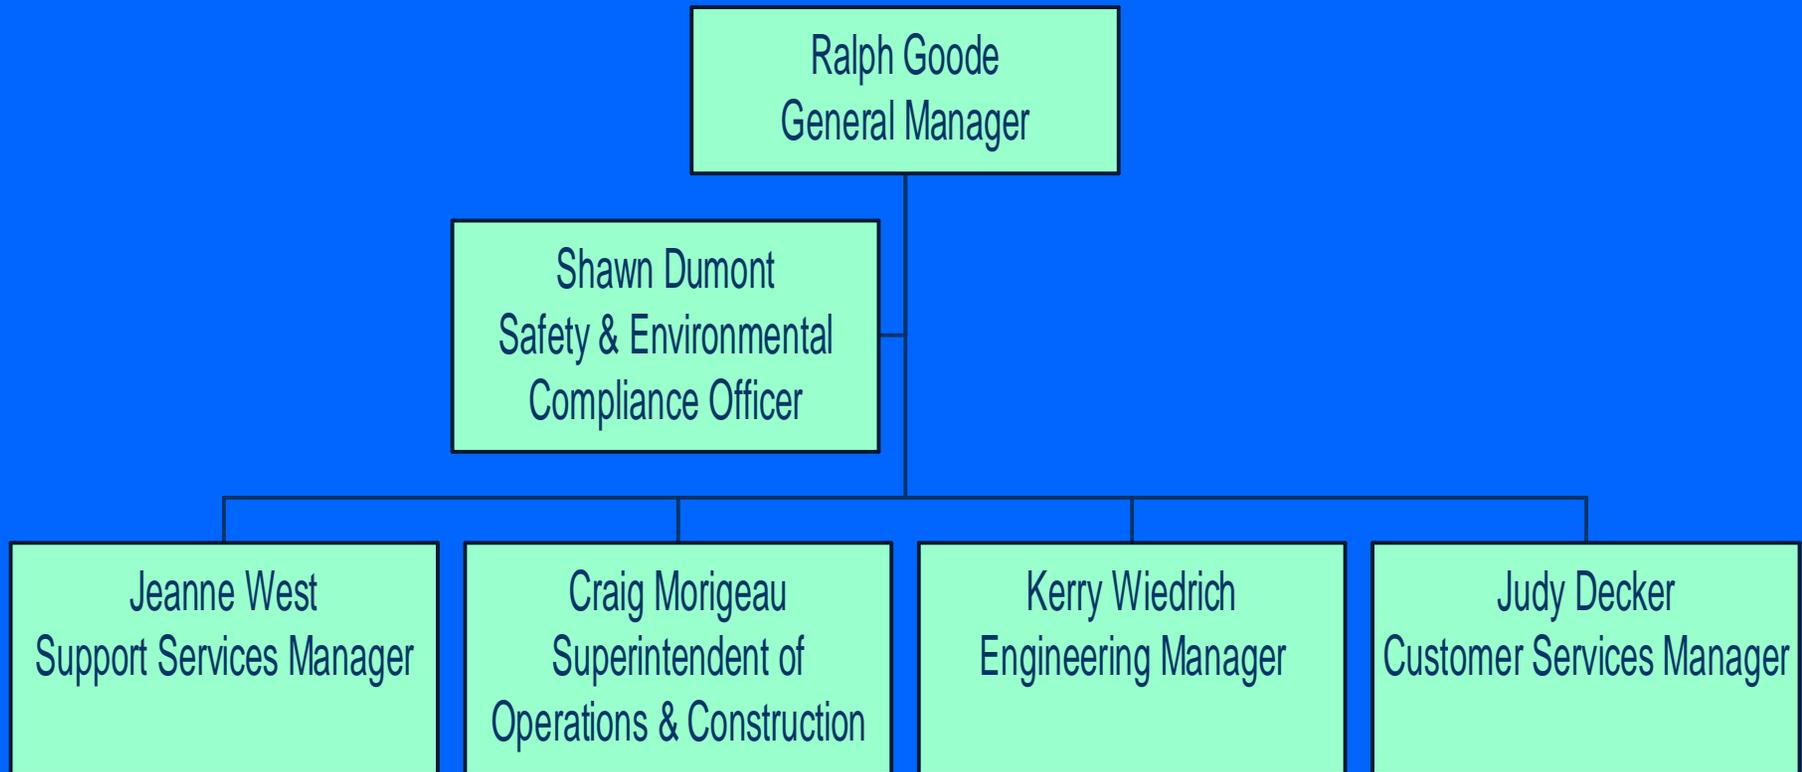

- By Managing and Operating Mission Valley Power
 - Ø Power Contracts and Understanding
 - Ø Transmission Contracts and Understanding
 - Ø Energy Issues in the Northwest and North America
 - Ø Energy Efficiency Measures
 - Ø Daily Operation of Power Delivery

Energy Efficiency Residential Programs

- Solar Powered Apparel Dehydrator "Clothesline"
- Appliance & Office Equipment
- Water Heater
- Ground Source Heat Pump
- Slab Insulation
- Under Floor & Perimeter Insulation
- Ceiling Insulation
- Energy Audits & Advice
- Shower Head
- Compact Fluorescent Lighting
- Wall Insulation
- Air Source Heat Pump
- Manufactured Housing
- Super Good Cents
- Windows
- Weatherization
- Conservation Awards

Organizational Chart

Mission Valley Power

Mission Substation

MVP Line Miles

Distribution	Overhead
	3 Phase	922.95
	2 Phase	41.77
	1 Phase	1032.11
	TOTAL	1996.82

Distribution	Underground
	3 Phase	10.07
	2 Phase	0.00
	1 Phase	93.12
	TOTAL	103.19

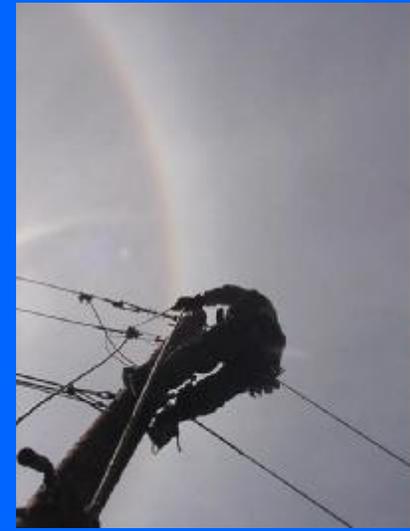

Transmission	Overhead
	34.5 KV	69.48
	69 KV	77.67

Total Distribution and Transmission lines =
2247.15 Miles

Average Mega Watt power
purchased for 2002 =
40.47

*Total Line miles does not reflect the customer base service lines.

O
P
E
R
A T
I
O
N
S
A N
D

C
O
N
S
T
R
U
C
T
I
O
N

Tribal Members Learn Trades Since 1988

- Ø 15 Journeymen Linemen
- Ø 4 Apprentice Linemen
- Ø 1 Journeyman Electric Instrument Mechanic (EIM)
- Ø 1 Apprentice EIM
- Ø 3 Journeymen Estimators/Stakers
- Ø 5 Journeymen Tree Trimmers

ENGINEER STAKING

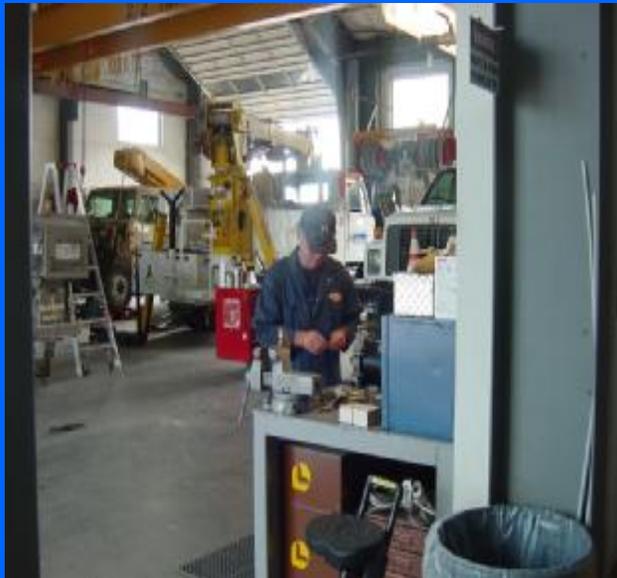

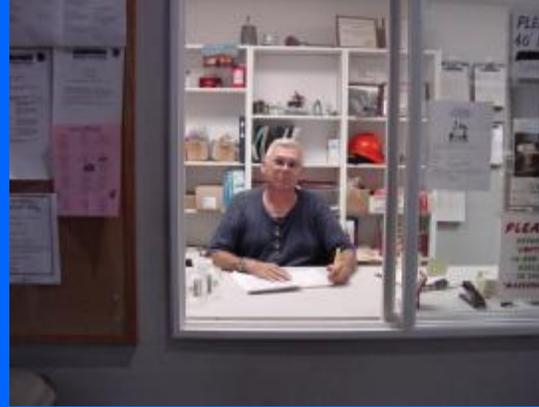

METERS & TRANSFORMERS

CUSTOMER SERVICE

MVP SHOP

Visit our Web Sites @

www.missionvalleypower.org

www.cskt.org

